

Job Title: Senior First Team Analyst
Reports to: Head of Analysis
Hours: 40 each week
Contract type: Permanent, full time.
Location: Oval Park Training Ground, Leicester
Closing date: 5PM, Friday 2 August 2024

About the role:

Here at Leicester Tigers, we are seeking a passionate and experienced Senior First Team Analyst.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide first team analysis requirements during the training week (filming and analysis of training).
- Present detailed and informative preview and review analysis according to the Head of Performance Analysis.
- Attend first team matches to provide essential live analysis.
- Contribute to the development and implementation of the Leicester Tigers game model.
- Working in collaboration with the Head of Performance Analysis and coaching staff to provide innovative & actionable insights for individual player development.
- Perform additional duties as required to meet the needs of the department

Qualifications & Training:

(E) = Essential

- BSc Degree (or equivalent) in Performance Analysis
- Over 2 years' experience of working with elite sports team environment.
- Strong game understanding.
- Proficient with Mac OS operating systems and software's including; Keynote, Numbers, Microsoft Office.
- Proficient use of performance analysis software specifically Hudl Sportscode and Studio.
- Experience of video capture and coding, both live and pre/post-match
- Experience of data collection, analysis & visualisation.

(D) = Desirable

- Masters MSc (or equivalent) in Performance Analysis
- Drone Pilot License
- Experience in using software's to manipulate large data

How to apply:

If you feel you have the skills and experience needed for this role, please download an application form from our website, and send this completed to jointheteam@tigers.co.uk by 5PM, Friday 2 August 2024.

