1. INTRODUCTION

The Leicester Tigers Foundation is committed to preserving the privacy of its staff and students, and to comply with the Data Protection Act (2018) and the General Data Protection Regulation.

The data protection principles are set out in the Data Protection Act (2018). Article 5 of the General Data Protection Regulation requires that personal data shall be:

- Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals
- Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed
- Accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date
- Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed
- Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures

Any concerns to be discussed with the Leicester Tigers PLC – Data protection lead - Ross Elder

2. PURPOSE

The Foundation processes personal data to fulfil contractual obligations, salary and benefits, holiday and sickness, funding claims, performance and achievement, safeguarding, equality diversity and inclusion, health & safety, accident reports, disciplinary, provision of education, support and advice to the students and clients, to promote the services, for publications, financial and staffing records, and other statutory obligations. Processing of this data also includes the use of CCTV in order to monitor and maintain the security of the premises and for the prevention or detection of crime. This is not an exhaustive list.

3. DEFINITIONS

Personal data is defined as data relating to a living individual who can be identified from that data alone, or with other data held by the Foundation or which the Foundation is likely to receive. This includes sensitive data relating to an individual's gender, age, ethnicity, disability, trade union membership, political opinions, religious or similar beliefs, physical or mental health, sexual life, commission or alleged commission of any offence or information concerning related criminal proceedings or outcomes.

LEICESTER TIGERS Foundation

The GDPR regulates the “processing” of personal information which has a very broad meaning and includes obtaining, storing, viewing, using, updating, disclosing and destroying any data held electronically, in structured manual records and to a limited extent to unstructured manual records. The Foundation is committed to using personal data responsibly to protect and keep secure from loss or destruction.

The requirements the Foundation has for processing personal data are recorded on the public register maintained by the Information Commissioner. The Foundation notify and renew the notification on an annual basis as the law requires. If there are any interim changes, these will be notified to the Information Commissioner within 28 days.

POLICY STATEMENT

This policy outlines the responsibilities of all staff (including 3rd parties under contract, and or self-employed / volunteers) with regard to the Data Protection Act (1998) and the General Data Protection Regulation.

Staff are required to handle and process data in any of the Foundation’s records or systems in accordance with this policy and in accordance with other related policies concerning the handling or processing of data.

4. IMPLEMENTATION

To meet the responsibilities the Foundation will:

- Ensure any new or planned projects that involve Personal Data are preceded with a Data Privacy Impact Assessment.
- Ensure that access controls are limited to role relevance.
- Ensure any personal data is collected in a fair and lawful way.
- Gain explicit consent where required.
- Explain at the outset why information is being collected, what it will be used for and with whom it will be shared.
- Ensure that only the minimum amount of information needed is collected and used.
- Ensure the information used is up to date and accurate.
- Review the length of time information is held, in line with JISC recommendations and other relevant legislation.
- Ensure information is kept safely.
- Ensure the rights people have in relation to their personal data can be exercised.
- Dispose of data appropriate and without unnecessary delay.

7. DATA SECURITY

The Foundation has an Information Security Policy that staff must adhere to in order to ensure personal information is protected from unauthorised viewing and from loss (including computer documents, emails and paper copies by ensuring staff are provided with adequate awareness training and follow guidelines set out in the GDPR code of practice: -

- Use lockable cupboards (restricted access to keys)
- Mandatory renewal of passwords to agreed frequency
- Password protection on personal information files
- Setting up computer systems to allow restricted access to certain areas
- Not allowing personal data to be taken off site (as hard copy, on laptop or on memory stick) without adequate safeguarding i.e. encryption
- If personal data can be taken off site, in which forms (paper, memory stick, and laptop) and give instruction to staff about keeping it safe
- Secure and reliable security back up of data
- Password protected attachments for sensitive personal information sent by email
- Robust and trustworthy IT security features
- Secure data flows across organisation and 3rd party data sharing requirements
- Robust secure on site IT storage facility of our electronic data
- Ensure all disposals of data are correctly destroyed using accredited organisations and appropriate certification is obtained.
- Ensure the use of confidential waste receptacles
- Ensure data is not shared without the explicit consent of the subject, where no exemptions apply.
- Set adequate access controls – role specific
- Take measures to ensure safe transfers of data outside of the EU/EEU where cross border sharing is necessary
- Continuous review of all measures

The Foundation will take steps to ensure that personal data is kept secure at all times against unauthorised or unlawful loss or disclosure. All College users must take reasonable responsibility to ensure the data is accurate and up to date, relevant and not excessive. Any unauthorised disclosure of personal data to a third party by any staff member may result in disciplinary or legal action.

Failure to comply with College policies and procedures for handling staff/student data is a disciplinary offence which may be considered gross misconduct and may also involve personal criminal liability.

8. DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS / SUBJECT ACCESS REQUESTS

Individuals have a right under the Regulation to ask the Foundation if it holds their personal data, and if so, be provided with a copy of it. Any person wishing to exercise this right should apply in writing to the Foundation.

In order to ensure the Foundation has met the Security requirements of the GDPR. The following information will be required before access is granted: (relevant identifying details including, Full name, Date of birth, National insurance number. The Foundation may also require proof of identity.

The following forms of ID will be acceptable: birth certificate, passport, or driving licence.

Subject Access Requests will be dealt with in line with the GDPR recommended timescales. The Foundation will aim to comply with requests for access to personal information as soon as possible, but will ensure it is provided within one month as required by the Regulation from receiving the written request. The Foundation will provide the information in a clear format that is easily understood and in a format suitable for the requesters needs. The Foundation may request further details to clarify the exact requirements prior to the start of the one month.

If an individual considers the details provided in response to a subject access request are incorrect or out of date, they should contact the Foundation immediately.

Anyone whose personal information the Foundation processes has the right to know:

- What information the Foundation hold and processes about them
- The legitimate reasons for processing
- The right to consent or withdraw consent
- How to gain access to this information
- How to keep it up to date
- To receive this data in a clear format
- To receive this data within one month
- Data Subjects have the right to prevent processing of their personal data in some circumstances and have the right to correct, rectify, block or erase information regarded as incorrect
- To be informed of any miss use or loss of this data if the loss represents a high risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals
- The right to erasure of personal information – commonly referred to as the right to be forgotten
- The right to complain and/or seek compensation

Foundation

The Foundation is also required to deal with individual requests under the Freedom of Information Act. It is the Foundation's policy to be as transparent as possible with the information that it holds, whilst taking due account of the interests of data subjects where information requested contains personal information. As such, each request is considered on an individual basis.

10. RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF DATA

The Foundation will retain information about staff and students for as long as is reasonable and necessary to comply with the law and for legitimate business needs. This will include information needed in connection with administering pensions and taxation, for potential or current disputes or litigation regarding employment, in the case of job applicants, in relation to any complaints or claims regarding the selection process, and information required for job references.

For students this will include information needed in connection with administering student applications, enrolment, attendance, achievement, success, post-college destinations, personal tutor notes, academic records, and information required for references, and in the case of prospective students, in relation to any enquiries, applications and interviews.

The Foundation will dispose of data in line with Data Retention Policy written in conjunction with JISC recommended data retention principles for Further Education, any legal and funding audit requirements. Once the retention period has elapsed, SCL will ensure that any information is destroyed by secure means, i.e. by shredding, pulping or burning for hard copy, deletion etc. for electronic/digitised copy. SCL will use a reputable ISO Accredited company and obtain destruction certification.

11. DATA SECURITY BREACH PROCEDURE

The Foundation takes the risk to security loss very seriously and adheres to the legal framework set down by the Information Commissioner's Office and industry standards. The Foundation has a Breach Management Procedure to be followed in the event of a data breach or suspected data breach to ensure SCL responds and manages effectively any breach in line with the GDPR recommendations. Actions may include:

- Containment and recovery – The Foundation will respond to the incident immediately which includes a recovery plan and, where necessary, implement procedures for damage limitation.
- Assessing the risks – The Foundation will assess any risks associated with a breach, as these could affect any procedures after the breach has been contained. In particular, the Foundation will assess the potential adverse consequences for individuals; how serious or substantial these are; and how likely they are to re occur.
